

Which of the following is the best example of a technical skill needed by a park and recreation professional to perform their job?

Match the following professional societies and or trade associations to their best description    NRPA, AAHPERD    ACA    ATRA    AALR    NIRSA

Which of the following professional certification levels are graduates from an accredited recreation and park curriculum (like KSUs) eligible for, once they have passed the national exam?    GO TO NRPA.ORG then search certification to find a current answer. As this is new as of JAN 1, 2008

Which of the following is an example of a technical certification?

T F The rates of U.S. population growth continues to decline (note rate of growth, not population in general)

CEU stands for

T F    The population continues to shift from suburban to urban centers

The proportion (change in % of this group compared to the total U.S. population) of which of the following groups is expected to decline from 2000 to 2020

The expected increase in older Americans has implications for the supply of leisure experiences, such as

What is the approximate ratio of urbanites to rural dwellers in the U.S.

How many children in the six to twelve year age group in the US will likely need out of school care within the next decade?

T F    The average size of U.S. households is increasing

T F Kelly and Godbey anticipate a blurring of public/private involvement in leisure, meaning an increased private involvement in social issues

What is the law forbidding sex discrimination in schools relative to athletics?

Nearly 1/3 of Americans will be a minority by the year 2015.

T F    Young people today are less healthy than their parents

According to a Time/CNN poll in 1999 what approximate ratio of individuals indicated they would like to slow down and live a more relaxed life?

T F The United States ranks in the top ten countries in the amount (as a % of total land) of land set aside as protected

T F With the invention of the microwave oven and other time-saving devices such as the desktop computer, people have substantially more free time than people had 20 years ago.